From Selected Poems of Rainer Maria Rilke, A Translation from the German and Commentary by Robert Bly. Also, from p. 65: "I once heard a story of Rilke's early life with his mother. It seems she wanted a girl, not a boy; and she gave him seven or eight middle names, including Maria.

Wellspring: "The Beholder" ["Der Schauende"] by Rainer ...
Rainer Maria Rilke, The Selected Poetry of Rainer Maria Rilke Rainer Maria Rilke seems to stretch his words from the dirt to the stars with his poems. His verse is my favorite kind of poetry. He is wrestling with angels, looking for the THING, peeling back the skin on tangerines while counting the seeds.
